

Global Liquidity

An automated service to sweep balances from your external accounts with other banks to your accounts

This service allows you to maintain important relationships with other banks while centralising the management of balances within your NatWest accounts. Global liquidity can sweep credit balances or fund debit balances in fully automated or manual transactions.

Your needs

To maintain accounts with other banks while managing your liquidity in the simplest and most convenient way, ensuring that you are not spending valuable time and resources on administration

You have both credit and debit balances in multiple currencies at other banks and require an automated solution to fund the debit balances (Topping) and sweep the credit balances (Sweeping) back to your NatWest accounts.

Our solution

Global Liquidity is accessible via Bankline and enables you to sweep balances from third party banks to your designated NatWest accounts, or fund debit balances held at your third party banks from your designated NatWest accounts. Global Liquidity holds over 500 agreements with other banks worldwide.

NatWest

Benefits

- Frees up time and resources by automating cash concentration
- Retains local banking relationships while centralising balance management within your NatWest accounts
- Provides a clear view of your accounts across multiple countries and currencies
- Precisely configures sweeps and tops
- Available across an extensive range of third party banks

Considerations

- Can only cater for single currency transactions
- Third party bank coverage - details of your third party bank will be required to establish if they are covered by our existing arrangements. If not, additional third party banks can be approached
- Sweeps and tops between different legal entities can be classified as inter-company loans. The resulting tax, legal and accounting considerations will need to be considered
- Execution of sweeps and tops to / from NatWest to / from third party banks is subject to the cut-off times of both banks

Is Global Liquidity right for you?

You might consider Global Liquidity if you:

-  Want to auto-initiate the transfer of funds for either investment or to reduce borrowing requirements at an account level
-  Want to maintain overseas banking relationships while maximising investment opportunities
-  Want to benefit from SWIFT messaging standards without being a SWIFT member

How it works

Pre-transfer balance check

Third party balance information is generated via SWIFT messaging into Global Liquidity

Sweeping or Topping transaction

Global Liquidity calculates the balances at third party banks to be either transferred or funded and automatically initiates requests to transfer

Transaction

Funds are transferred to or from NatWest accounts

Review

View balance and transaction details for third party banks via Bankline Direct and view projected close of business balances

Working with you

One of our Implementation Managers will be appointed to manage the set-up of Global Liquidity on your accounts. They will guide you through the set-up process, advise on documentation and provide all the relevant training and support.
